The Daughters Of Mars

The Daughters of Mars Thomas Keneally, 2013-08-20 In what is perhaps the best novel of his career The Spectator the acclaimed author of Schindler's List tells the unforgettable story of two sisters whose lives are transformed by the cataclysm of the first world war In 1915 Naomi and Sally Durance two spirited Australian sisters join the war effort as nurses escaping the confines of their father's farm and carrying a guilty secret with them Amid the carnage the sisters tenuous bond strengthens as they bravely face extreme danger and hostility sometimes from their own side There is great humor and compassion too and the inspiring example of the incredible women they serve alongside In France each meets an exceptional man the kind for whom she might relinquish her newfound independence if only they all survive At once vast in scope and extraordinarily intimate The Daughters of Mars is a remarkable novel about suffering and transcendence despair and triumph and the simple acts of decency that make us human even in a world gone mad

Schindler's List Thomas Keneally, 2013-08-06 In remembrance of the 75th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz and the Nazi concentration camps this award winning bestselling work of Holocaust fiction inspiration for the classic film and masterful account of the growth of the human soul Los Angeles Times Book Review returns with an all new introduction by the author An extraordinary New York Review of Books novel based on the true story of how German war profiteer and factory director Oskar Schindler came to save more Jews from the gas chambers than any other single person during World War II In this milestone of Holocaust literature Thomas Keneally author of The Book of Science and Antiquities and The Daughter of Mars uses the actual testimony of the Schindlerjuden Schindler's Jews to brilliantly portray the courage and cunning of a good man in the midst of unspeakable evil Astounding in this case the truth is far more powerful than anything the imagination could invent Newsweek

Shame and the Captives Thomas Keneally, 2015-02-24 If the legendary Schindler's List was not enough to showcase Thomas Keneally's literary mastery then this novel surely will New York Daily News as the Booker Prize winning author reimagines from all sides the drastic true events of the night more than one thousand Japanese POWs staged the largest and bloodiest prison escape of World War II Alice is living on her father in law's farm on the edge of an Australian country town while her husband is held prisoner in Europe When Giancarlo an Italian inmate at the prisoner of war camp down the road is assigned to work on the farm she hopes that being kind to him will somehow influence her husband's treatment What she doesn't anticipate is how dramatically Giancarlo will change the way she understands both herself and the wider world What most challenges Alice and her fellow townspeople is the utter foreignness of the thousand plus Japanese inmates and their deeply held code of honor which the camp commanders fatally misread Mortified by being taken alive in battle and preferring a violent death to the shame of living the Japanese prisoners plan an outbreak with shattering and far reaching consequences for all the citizens around them In a career spanning half a century Thomas Keneally has proven brilliant at exploring ordinary lives caught up in extraordinary events With this profoundly gripping and thought provoking novel inspired by a notorious incident in New South Wales in 1944 he once again shows why he is celebrated as a writer who looks into the heart of the human condition with a piercing intelligence that few can match Sunday Telegraph

Mars and the Search for Life Elaine Scott, 2008 Examines the theories about life on Mars providing both historical and current information about our exploration of the Red Planet

Daughters of a Coral Dawn Katherine V. Forrest, 2011-01-01 The sky begins to shimmer with the silver of brilliant star clusters the eerie radiance of red and blue fluorescence One huge moon glowing gold is soon joined by two others much smaller which slowly rise above the horizon each jagged in shape as if carelessly formed Night falls suddenly and completely and we sit together in a glorious royal blue world illuminated with silver It is Mother who speaks softly So lovely a world is surely meant for women Late in the 22nd century the settling of a new world falls on the strong shoulders of young Megan The perfect leader she undertakes to guide her sisters to a new planet free from the shackles of the brutal Earth regime Negotiating politics in a society of women is second only to securing their safety When a landing party of men and women discover their colony Megan must decide if the outsiders will live or die And that includes Lt Laurel Meredith whose disturbing beauty is as dangerous to Megan as her people are to Megan's world

Trees on Mars Hal Niedzviecki, 2015-10-20 The future is big right now for perhaps the first time our society is more focused on what is going to happen in the future than what is happening right now In Trees on Mars Our Obsession with the Future cultural critic and indie entrepreneur Hal Niedzviecki asks how and when we started believing we could and should create the future What is it like to live in a society utterly focused on what is going to happen next Through visits to colleges corporations tech conferences factories and more Niedzviecki traces the story of how owning the future has become irresistible to us In deep conversation with both the beneficiaries and victims of our relentless obsession with the future Niedzviecki asks crucial questions Where are we actually heading How will we get there And whom may we be leaving behind

The Book of Science and Antiquities Thomas Keneally, 2019-12-10 Thomas Keneally the bestselling author of The Daughters of Mars and Schindler's List brings his insightful and nimble prose The New York Times Book Review to this exquisite exploration of community and country love and morality set in both prehistoric and modern Australia An award winning documentary filmmaker Shelby Apple is obsessed with reimagining the full story of the Learned Man a prehistoric man whose remains are believed to be the link between Africa and ancient Australia From Vietnam to northern Africa and the Australian Outback Shelby searches for understanding of this enigmatic man from the ancient past unaware that the two men share a great deal in common Some 40 000 years in the past the Learned Man has made his home alongside other members of his tribe Complex and deeply introspective he reveres tradition loyalty and respect for his ancestors Willing to sacrifice himself for the greater good the Learned Man cannot conceive that a man millennia later could relate to him in heart and feeling In this meditation on last things but still electric with life passion and appetite The Australian Thomas Keneally weaves an extraordinary dual narrative that effortlessly transports you around the world and across time offering a hymn to idealism and to human development Sydney Morning Herald

The Sirens of Mars Sarah Stewart Johnson, 2020-07-07 Sarah Stewart Johnson interweaves her own coming of age story as a planetary scientist with a vivid history of the exploration of Mars in this celebration of human curiosity passion and perseverance Alan Lightman author of Einstein's Dreams WINNER OF THE PHI BETA KAPPA AWARD FOR SCIENCE NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY The New York Times Book Review Times UK Library Journal Lovely Johnson's prose swirls with lyrical wonder as varied and multihued as the apricot deserts butterscotch skies and blue sunsets of Mars Anthony Doerr The New York Times Book Review Mars was once similar to Earth but today there are no rivers no lakes no oceans Coated in red dust the terrain is bewilderingly empty And yet multiple spacecraft are circling Mars sweeping over Terra Sabaea Syrtis Major the dunes of Elysium and Mare Sirenum on the brink perhaps of a staggering find one that would inspire humankind as much as any discovery in the history of modern science In this beautifully observed deeply personal book Georgetown scientist Sarah Stewart Johnson tells the story of how she and other researchers have scoured Mars for signs of life transforming the planet from a distant point of light into a world of its own Johnson's fascination with Mars began as a child in Kentucky turning over rocks with her father and looking at planets in the night sky She now conducts fieldwork in some of Earth's most hostile environments such as the Dry Valleys of Antarctica and the salt flats of Western Australia developing methods for detecting life on other worlds Here with poetic precision she interlaces her own personal journey as a female scientist and a mother with tales of other seekers from Percival Lowell who was convinced that a utopian society existed on Mars to Audouin Dollfus who tried to carry out astronomical observations from a stratospheric balloon In the process she shows how the story of Mars is also a story about Earth This other world has been our mirror our foil a telltale reflection of our own anxieties and yearnings Empathetic and evocative The Sirens of Mars offers an unlikely natural history of a place where no human has ever set foot while providing a vivid portrait of our quest to defy our isolation in the cosmos

The Wanderers Meg Howrey, 2017-03-14 A brilliantly inventive novel about three astronauts training for the first ever mission to Mars an experience that will push the boundary between real and unreal test their relationships and leave each of them and their families changed forever A transcendent cross cultural and cross planetary journey into the mysteries of space and self Howrey's expansive vision left me awestruck Ruth Ozeki Howrey's exquisite novel demonstrates that the final frontier may not be space after all J Ryan Stradal In an age of space exploration we search to find ourselves In four years aerospace giant Prime Space will put the first humans on Mars Helen Kane Yoshihiro Tanaka and Sergei Kuznetsov must prove they're the crew for the historic voyage by spending seventeen months in the most realistic simulation ever created Constantly observed by Prime Space's team of Obbers Helen Yoshi and Sergei must appear ever in control But as their surreal pantomime progresses each soon realizes that the complications of inner space are no less fraught than those of outer space The borders between what is real and unreal begin to blur and each astronaut is forced to confront demons past and present even as they struggle to navigate their increasingly claustrophobic quarters and each other Astonishingly imaginative tenderly comedic and unerringly wise The Wanderers explores the differences between those who go and those who stay telling a story about the desire behind all exploration the longing for discovery and the great search to understand the human heart

The Dickens Boy Thomas Keneally, 2022-03-08 The award winning author of modern classics such as Schindler's List and Napoleon's Last Island is at his triumphant best with this engrossing and transporting Financial Times novel about the adventures of Charles Dickens's son in the Australian Outback during the 1860s Edward Dickens the tenth child of England's most famous author Charles Dickens has consistently let his parents down Unable to apply himself at school and adrift in life the teenaged boy is sent to Australia in the hopes that he can make something of himself or at least fail out of the public eye He soon finds himself in the remote Outback surrounded by Aboriginals colonials ex convicts ex soldiers and very few women Determined to prove to his parents and more importantly himself that he can succeed in this vast and unfamiliar wilderness Edward works hard at his new life amidst various livestock bushrangers shifty stock agents and frontier battles By reimagining the tale of a fascinating yet little known figure in history this roguishly tender coming of age story Booklist offers penetrating insights into Colonialism and the fate of Australia's indigenous people and a wonderfully intimate portrait of Charles Dickens as seen through the eyes of his son

Crow Call Lois Lowry, 2010-11-01 The two time Newbery medalist has crafted a loving representation of a relationship between parent and child in post WWII America Publishers Weekly starred review This is the story of young Liz her father and their strained relationship Dad has been away at WWII for longer than she can remember and they begin their journey of reconnection through a hunting shirt cherry pie tender conversation and the crow call This allegorical story shows how like the birds gathering above the relationship between the girl and her father is graced with the chance to fly The memory of a treasured day spent with a special person will resonate with readers everywhere School Library Journal starred review Beautifully written the piece reads much like a traditional short story the details of Ibatouline's renderings gracefully capture a moment in time that was lost Relevant for families whose parents are returning from war the text is also ripe for classroom discussion and for advanced readers Kirkus Reviews
